Children should visit the dentist by age 1. In fact, before the first baby teeth even come in, you can take measures to help protect your little one from the effects of dental disease.

Visit DentistBy1.com to learn more or support the cause.

Has your baby been to the dentist yet?
Make the appointment today.